SUMMER 1984

A Word From Our Chairman

I'm pleased to have this opportunity to write to you. Being asked to be Chairman of The Grange is an honour and a large responsibility, and I'm looking forward to working with you.

I spoke to some of you at The Annual Meeting of an attitude about which I feel very strongly. I commented that a volunteer's job must not only be fun but must be rewarding. If either is missing, something is wrong and should be corrected. Please feel free to speak to me or your Day Captains about your concerns and suggestions.

It has taken awhile, we weren't right on schedule, but the front door is finally open for guests. The fence and mud have disappeared. As well, we have permission to have our security guard open the door under the stairs in order that our guests may see the gardens. Please ask them to not walk through The Restaurant or The Gallery.

Our house seems to be well staffed for the summer. Our only problem is Sundays. Please help out the occasional day, if you can.

During the next few months, Jean Dickson and Annie O'Brian will be working on a Procedures Manual. Please give them any suggestions that would help in compiling this manual.

A list of paintings and a short biography of the artists in the Music Room can be found in the sideboards in the Music Room and the upstairs hall.

For those of you with wonderful gardens, keep A Celebration in mind. We'll be hoping for donations.

THE GRANGE NEWSLETTER

I'd like to clear up some misconceptions about The Grange Shop, which will be opening in the front lobby in mid-August. We, at The Grange, are suppliers for the shop. We have no hand in running the shop, nor do we share in their profits. They buy from us and we make our money in our mark-ups. The Retail Operations Committee is a totally separate committee under the Volunteer Committee, just as we are, Art Rental or The Reproduction Shop. Their profits will also go to The Volunteer Committee. I hope this clears up some of the misunderstandings.

Many thanks for your guidance and patience during this transition period. I'm looking forward to meeting more of you and to working with you during the next two years. In particular, I would like to thank Kae Fogden.-SM
